

What do our Tech Leads say about their role within the UK Sports Institute?

A Technical Lead (TL) will form a key part of the leadership team for their discipline and will work with practitioners and the Head of Performance Support in a sport(s) on a regular basis.

What do UKSI Technical Leads enjoy about the role?

“Developing practitioners! – seeing people flourish and the challenge of helping people grow”

“Being able to utilise the meaningful expertise & experience gathered over the years and give something back to others”

“Balance between satisfaction in practitioner development & discipline progression & system contribution”

“Enabling service delivery by connecting the wider network to support athletes & the sports to excel”

“Navigating the diversity and challenge of the role. Every part of the job takes a different path”

If you would like to know more about what its like to be a TL with us, please email Recruitment@uksportsinstitute.co.uk